

Vacancies

Two full time, tenure-track positions are available in Composition and Literature in the Department of English, School of Arts and Humanities, Bethune Cookman University. Successful candidates are expected to teach at least one Freshman composition I and/or II each semester and other courses in the program. Secondary areas of interest may include Creative Writing, Linguistics, Post-Colonial Literature, world Literature, and Technical Communication.

Candidates must have a Ph.D. or ABD. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Screening of applications will begin immediately until the positions are filled.

An equal opportunity employer, Bethune-Cookman University is an HBCU located in Daytona Beach, Florida, with a student population of just under 4,000 students. The school takes pride in its diverse population of faculty, staff and students.

Interested candidates should send cover letter of interest, curriculum vitae, three letters of recommendations, and official transcripts of all graduate work to:

Department of English
School of Arts & Humanities
Bethune-Cookman University
640 Mary McLeod Bethune Blvd.
Daytona Beach, FL 32114
Tel: (386) 481-2705 or 481-2729
E-mail: leep@cookman.edu or asgill@cookman.edu