

HEAD GOLF COACH

Bethune-Cookman University, located in Daytona Beach, Florida, a Division I member of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, is seeking a Head Golf Coach. This is a full-time 12-month coaching position with responsibilities including but not limited to: Coaching, recruiting, management of staff and student-athletes, budgeting and planning for both the men and women's golf program. The position also involves promotions, development of a summer camp program, effective on-course teaching, monitoring the academic progress of student-athletes, and mentoring. The coach will also serve as an ambassador for Bethune-Cookman University.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the total management of the men and women's golf program at Bethune-Cookman University with a direct line of reporting to the director of intercollegiate athletics. Qualifications: Bachelor's degree required; masters preferred; a minimum of three years Division I college head or lead assistant coaching experience is also preferred and a proven working knowledge of NCAA Division I recruiting guidelines is a must. A proven working knowledge of PGA rules as well as PGA teaching certification or its' equivalent is also preferred. The position requires high moral and ethical character, excellent motivational and communication skills, and an excellent work ethic. Salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Bethune-Cookman University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer affiliated with the United Methodist Church and the successful candidate must espouse values consistent with those at a Christian institution.

To apply, please submit a letter of application and resume, three letters of reference as well as a written statement of your coaching philosophy to: hr@cookman.edu attention: Ms. Cathy Washington, Director of Human Resources, Bethune-Cookman University, 640 Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Boulevard, Daytona Beach, Florida 32114