

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY
DAYTONA BEACH, FL

Bethune-Cookman University Invites Applications for the Following Positions:

Assistant Professor of Gerontology:

Ph.D. in Gerontology with concentrations in Theory, Social Psychology, Research and Statistics. excellence in teaching, advising, mentoring and career development.

Assistant Professor of History:

Ph.D. in History is preferred, the M.A. in History considered. Period and specialization open. Applicants must be able to teach at least the one-semester African American History and upper level courses in their specialty.

Assistant Professor of International Studies

Ph.D in Political Science. Course work must include emphases in areas such as International Politics, policy development and geography.

Assistant Professor of Sociology

Ph.D. in Sociology required. The ideal candidate is a broadly trained sociologist with qualification for teaching a diverse range of courses at the undergraduate level. A background in social services or social work is highly desired.

Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice:

Ph.D. in Criminal Justice required. The ideal candidate is a generalist with ability to teach all criminal justice courses including criminal justice theory, practice and policy.

Assistant Professor of Political Science:

Ph.D. in Political Science with concentrations in Research, Political Theory, American Government, International Politics, and Public Administration.

Assistant Professor of Psychology:

Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology. The preferred candidate has clinical experience and has managed and/or supervised student internships at the undergraduate level.

Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Ph.D. in Mathematics. Ability to teach a broad range of undergraduate mathematics courses from introductory to advanced.

Instructor/Asst. Professor of Nursing:

Ph.D in Nursing preferred, Masters in Nursing. Four positions are available and a variety of specialty are will be considered.

General Requirements/Responsibilities for All Positions:

Evidence of excellence in teaching at the college/university level, including course and curriculum development. Evidence of scholarly activity and service. Evidence of success in securing external funding is highly desired.

The ability to use technology in the classroom and/or teach online courses is required. Successful candidates are expected to participate in student advisement, campus service, scholarly research and activities, and community service.

All positions are full-time for nine-month positions beginning August 2009.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae and three letters of reference to:

Dr. Castell V. Bryant
Vice President for Academic Affairs
Bethune-Cookman University
640 Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Blvd.
Daytona Beach, FL 32119
(386)481-2061

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY: Bethune-Cookman University, the 4th largest of the 39-member UNCF colleges/universities is located in the Atlantic coast city of Daytona Beach, Florida, which has a metropolitan area population of more than 180,000.

Founded by Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune in 1904, the university is a historically Black United Methodist Church-related, liberal arts, career-oriented, coeducational and residential institution offering the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor Science degrees in 39 major areas through six academic schools: Business, Education, Arts and Humanities, Nursing, Science & Mathematics and Social Sciences.

The university is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Florida State Department of Education, the University Senate of the United Methodist Church, AMA Committee on Allied Health Education and Accreditation, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, Accreditation Commission for programs in Hospitality Administration and National League for Nursing.